MSN Skyhigh PC/Windows

This is a freeware app. However it does use a web server to do its job. When you go offline your conversations are stopped, however if you go back online, the app will start again and you will find that the conversations you were having are still there. It works by checking every 10 minutes to see if you are online and starting the app if you are. If you are offline it won't start for you. If you don't want to make it every 10 minutes you can set it to check when you tell it to. You can use our online interface to help you set it all up. It is not possible to use the "Force a session to be registered" feature to start the application immediately after the user logs in, because our server starts the application at some time after the client logged in.
